

Mark 14:10-21 “Handling Betrayal”

Mark 14:10-21

From the End Times to the Final Week

- 4 Scenes That Bring Us to the Cross
Mary, Judas, Religious Leaders and Peter
- Two Opposing Forces Moving to the Same End

Judas Iscariot

- The Judas Controversy and Biblical Clarity
- Mixed Emotions and Difficult Questions

Mark 14:1-2, 10-11

2 Days Before Passover

- The Greatest Holiday
- The Conspiracy, The Problem

Judas Does the Deal

- Judas Was Looking: Not a Victim, Martyr or Robot
- Looking for Opportunity to Sin? You’ll Always Find One

Judas Iscariot “Man from Kerioth”

- In 6:71 Son of Simon, Judas Had Parents
- V10 One of the Twelve, No Excuses

Judas’ Motive

- Greed and Bitter Disappointment
- Danger: When God Won’t Bless Your Plans
- Putting a Price on My Relationship with Jesus

Mark 14:12-16

Mark 14:10-21 “Handling Betrayal”

The Secret Last Supper Location

- A Guy With a Pitcher, Protecting the Final Hours
- The Upper Room: Mark’s Home Acts 12:12

Lots to Say, Lots to Do

- In 13-16 Upper Room Discourse
- Wash Feet, New Meaning to the Passover- Communion
- One Last Piece of Business

Mark 14:17-20

The Most Important Meal in the History of the World

- The Last Supper was a Passover Meal

Jesus Drops the Betrayal Bomb

- No One Suspected Judas
- Am I The Traitor?
- Jesus Shows Him Love, A Last Chance to Repent

Mark 14:21

A Divine Paradox With No Explanation

- The Betrayal and The Word of God
- The Betrayal and That Man
- God’s Sovereignty Does not Remove Human Responsibility

Better Not to Be Born

- Hell is Real and Eternal

Mark 14:10-21

Why Judas? To Display His Innocence and Beauty

Mark 14:10-21 “Handling Betrayal”

- Mt 27:4 “Betrayed Innocent Blood”
- The Best Character Witness

Being Betrayed By Someone at the Table v18

- Don't Turn from God or His Calling
- Forgive and Pray
- Talk to God